

First Reading Ezekiel 18:25-28
A Reading from the Prophet Ezekiel

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: ‘You object, “What the Lord does is unjust.” Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.’

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 24:4-9
Remember your mercy, Lord.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are my saviour.

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness. O Lord.

The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor.

Second Reading Philippians 2:1-11
A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no deceit: but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people’s interest instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Alleluia! Alleluia!
If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him.

Alleluia
Gospel Matthew 21:28-32

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, ‘What is your opinion? A man has two sons. He went and said to the first, “My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today.” He answered, “I will not go”, but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, “Certainly sir”, but did not go. Which of the two did the father’s will?’ ‘The first,’ they said. Jesus said to them, ‘I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- All those who are attending churches must wear a face covering unless they are exempt from doing so. This is for the good of all who gather in the Church for Mass as it is an enclosed public space where there are people from differing households who they do not normally meet.
- All weekdays Masses are private for the foreseeable future.
- Hospital. In the meantime, Priests will only go into the hospital in response to a request from the Hospital switchboard or ward staff. Anyone in the hospital that requires a visit from a priest should please go through the nurse or switchboard. This will be in emergency only. There will be no Holy Communion rounds until further notice.
- To book for seat(s) at Mass online, visit our website www.barnsleynorth.hallam-diocese.com and follow the instructions. You can also call or email the parish office. You can access our weekly newsletter online.
- St Mary Magdalene Church, Cudworth is open for private prayers Saturday 12 noon to 1pm

Thank you to all parishioners for your generous offertory donations. Thank you

We welcome Fr Jude Lemeh CM. Fr Jude will reside at St Mary Magdalene Presbytery and serve in the Deanery, and as hospital Chaplain.

We have requested to re-open St Mary Magdalene for Mass. We await the bishops response, hopefully that will happen soon. After that, we will work towards re-opening St Teresa's as well, hopefully in the coming month.
