

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah66:10-14c

Thus says the Lord: 'Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious abundance.' For thus says the Lord: 'Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse, you shall be carried upon her hip, and bounced upon her knees. As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bones shall flourish like the grass; and the hand of the Lord shall be known to his servants.'

The word of the Lord.Responsorial Psalm*Psalm 66 (65)*Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.
 O sing to the glory of his name.
 O render him glorious praise.
 Say to God, 'How wondrous your deeds!'

'Before you all the earth shall bow down,
 shall sing to you, sing to your name!'
 Come and see the works of God:
 his wondrous deeds among the children of Adam.

He turned the sea into dry land;
 they passed through the river on foot.
 Let our joy, then, be in him;
 he rules for ever by his might.

Come and hear, all who fear God;
 I will tell what he did for my soul.
 Blest be God, who did not reject my prayer,
 nor withhold from me his merciful love.

A Reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Galatians6:14-18

Brothers and sisters: Far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. The grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

The word of the Lord.Alleluia, alleluia.*Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts; let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.*Alleluia.*GOSPEL*A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke*10:1-12,17-20

At that time: The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send labourers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no money bag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the labourer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you." Heal the sick in it and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But when ever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near." I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.' The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!' And he said to them, 'I saw Satan fall like lightening from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice, that your names are written in heaven.'
