

A reading from the Prophet Malachi

4:1-2a

Behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble. The day that is coming shall set them ablaze, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 98(97)5-6,8a,8b-9b,9cd.

The Lord comes to judge the peoples with fairness.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp,
with the harp and the sound of the song.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn,
raise a shout before the King, the Lord.

Let the sea and all within it thunder;
the world, and those who dwell in it.
Let the rivers clap their hands.

The hills ring out their joy
at the presence of the Lord, for he comes.
He comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with justice,
and the peoples with fairness.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians 3:7- 2

Brothers and sisters: You know how you ought to imitate us, because we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with toil and labour we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you. It was not because we do not have that right, but to give you in ourselves an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we would give you this command: If anyone is not willing to work, let him not eat. For we hear that some among you walk in idleness, not busy at work, but busybodies. Now such persons we command and encourage in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living.

The Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia

Straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.

Alleluia.

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

1:5-19

At that time: While some were speaking of the Temple, how it was adorned with noble stones and offerings, Jesus said, 'As for these things that you see, the days will come when there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down.' And they asked him, 'Teacher, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?' And he said, 'See that you are not led astray. For many will come in my name, saying, "I am he!" and, "The time is at hand!" Do not go after them. And when you hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified, for these things must first take place, but the end will not be at once.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences. And there will be terrors and great signs from heaven. 'But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name's sake. This will be your opportunity to bear witness. Settle it, therefore in your minds, not to mediate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and sisters, and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair on your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives.'

Prayer to Our Lady for Priests

Mary you are the Mother of God and our Mother.

Your Son always listens to your voice.

Look upon us in our needs.

We pray for our Parishes.

May your Holy Spouse Joseph bless and protect us.

Send the Church in our country and especially in the Diocese of Hallam,
and Deanery of Barnsley,
many Holy Priests,
to love us,
lead us,
and guide us in the faith.
We ask this through Christ your Son.
Amen.
