

A reading from the Prophet Ezekiel*47:1-2,8-9,12

In those days: The angel brought me back to the door of the Temple, and behold, water was issuing from below the threshold of the Temple towards the east, (for the Temple faced east) The water was flowing down from below the south end of the threshold of the Temple, south of the altar. Then he brought me out by the way of the north gate and led me round on the outside to the outer gate that faces towards the east; and behold, the water was trickling out on the south side. And he said to me, 'This water flows towards the eastern region and goes down into Arabah, and enters the sea; when the water flows into the sea, the water becomes fresh. And wherever the river goes, every living creature that swarms will live, and there will be very many fish. For this water goes there, that the waters of the sea may become fresh; so everything will live where the river goes. And on the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither, nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water that flows from them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing. '

The Word of the Lord.*Responsorial Psalm*Ps 46 (45):2-3.5-6.8-9.*The waters of the river give joy to God's city, the holy place, the abode of the Most High.

God is for us a refuge and strength,
 an ever-present help in time of distress:
 so we shall not fear though the earth should rock,
 though the mountains quake to the heart of the sea.

The waters of a river give joy to God's city,
 the holy place, the abode of the Most High.
 God is in her midst, she cannot be shaken;
 God will help her at the dawning of the day.

The Lord of hosts is with us:
 the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
 Come and behold the works of the Lord,
 the awesome deeds he has done on earth.

A Reading from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians*3:9c-11,16-17

Brothers and sisters: You are God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

The Word of the Lord.*A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John*2:13-22

The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the Temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and money-changers sitting there. And making a whip of cords, he drove them all out of the Temple, with the sheep and oxen. And he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. And he told those who sold the pigeons, 'Take these things away; do not make my Father's house a house of trade.' His disciples remembered what was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' So the Jews said to him, 'What sign do you show us for doing these things?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and you will raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking about the temple of his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.
